Appeal Explanation:

I prepared the application on 3/8/2018 (You can see the copy of my emails) and submitted it the same day. I did not know I had to submitted again seems like it. I was very surprised to open our organization EPC today 3/26/2018, to see that this application was waiting to be submitted for certification. I was sure it was already submitted.

Could you please accept this appeal and change the status of the application? In all honesty it was a mistake since this new system of EPC certification is somewhat different.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Pablo Cerquera
